

This Weekend: Love in Action for God's Creation

“Plastic Night” Friday, April 12 at 7 PM: Are you looking for ways you can help protect the planet and stop polluting plastics from entering our waterways and food chain? The Manasquan Quaker Friends have invited Saint Mary's to join them for Plastic Night on Friday, April 12 at 7 p.m. to share practical ideas for reducing the use of plastic in our homes, our congregations, and our communities. Refreshments will follow. Please RSVP to Eleanor at 732-988-0998 or enovek@monmouth.edu. Manasquan Quaker Meeting, 2257 Meetinghouse Road, Manasquan, NJ 08736.

“Beach Sweeps” Saturday, April 13, 9-12:30 PM: Please join hundreds of volunteers in cleaning up New Jersey beaches and waterfront areas at Clean Ocean Action's 34th Annual Beach Sweeps on Saturday April 13th, 9-12:30 PM. Saint Mary's friends will be at the end of Maxon Avenue at River Road near Riverfront Park in Point Pleasant. Please bring gloves, a bucket or paper trash bag(s) and stay as long as you can!
